Officer, Committee and 142 Steward Elections:

We will be conducting elections in October as needed for all positions. Nominations for eligible members will be conducted at the September 10th meeting. Please see the posted Election Notices.

Election time:

Election time is coming up for our US President and elected officials. You can go to the "AFI-CIO Scorecard" to find how our senators and representatives voted on each issue. This may help you decide!

Employee Assistance Program (EAP):

Have you, a family member or coworker experienced lifestyle, emotional or substance challenges these past few years? Our union has an Employee Assistance Program available to help you address your challenges in a healthy way. On the district page there is a monthly newsletter Helping Hands with insightful resources and information. If you need assistance review the page for your representative or reach-out to your committee / stewards to make contact.

Airlines Negotiations:

American and United Airlines started contract negotiations this summer. You will see the highlight pages for each airline on the district website "iam141.org. Stay informed and follow the communications, Steadfast in solidarity!
